

Speech

Anna Carnell

Anna Carnell is a teacher and mosaic artist. Art and literature are the counterpoint of everything she does. A teacher librarian for 15 years with Calgary Board and Education, she used literature and the spoken arts in all units. She continues to teach speech and drama privately and art-in-residence activities in schools. She creates mosaics for private and public commissions and also involves the community in group mosaic projects.
www.stonecraftmosaics.com